The mission at Cell4pets is to find responsible and loving homes for the millions of abandoned and abused dogs and cats. We achieve this by reselling your device and taking a portion of every sale and donating it to the North Shore Animal League.

The NSAL is the leader in the no-kill movement. According to the NSAL an estimated 2,000,000 homeless pets are euthanized each year. Help us help to reduce this number. When you sell your phone to Cell4pets you not only receive top dollar for your device you're also helping our most loyal companions.

Extending the life cycle of electronic devices keeps them out of our landfills. It's estimated there are millions if not a billion unused cell phones in the US. It is our mission to reduce the amount of unused phones that end up in our landfills. By refurbishing, reselling, or recycling, we'll help save our planet as well as give back to our most loyal companions.

Factors impacting the price you'll receive for your device:

- * Model: It's simple, iPhones, iPads, and Galaxy phones bring the highest offers; The newer the model the higher the offer
- * Condition: Please read our descriptions carefully; Good and Flawless devices receive significantly more than Fair, Cracked or Broken
- * Manufacturer: Apple and Samsung have an edge over the other smartphone manufacturers due to higher global demand

You can expect to earn significantly more for your iPhone or Samsung when you sell your device to Cell4pets. Cell4pets has made it really simple for you to sell your smartphone online. The process is quick and easy, just three simple steps! Cell4pets offers an instant price quote for your used Apple iPhones, iPads or Samsung Galaxy smartphones making the entire process seamless. Even if your device is not listed on the portal, you can request a quote from their team of technicians.
