San Diego based indie developer, Pixite, Inc. today announces Zinnia Journal 1.0, the newest in a line of best-in-class creativity apps for iPad devices. Zinnia is a journaling app that incorporates the creativity of a sketch pad with the practical features of traditional journaling. Zinnia is a daily companion that encourages mindful activities such as sketching, planning, collaging, and tracking the things you want to do today and in the future.

San Diego, California - Independent developer Pixite, Inc. today is proud to announce the release and immediate availability of Zinnia Journal 1.0. The journaling app is the latest in a line of best-in-class creativity apps for the iPad. Zinna Journal incorporates the creativity of a sketch pad with the practical features of traditional journaling. The app acts as a daily companion that encourages users to encourage mindful activities such as sketching, planning, collaging, and tracking the things users want to do today and in the future.

Zinnia Journal is an excellent way to document activities with friends, daily reading material, daily routines and anything else going on in a user's life. The app's wide assortment of tools includes stickers, calendars, habit trackers, and washi tape.

"Zinnia Journal brings the next level of journaling to the iPad," said Eugene Kaneko, Pixite's co-founder. "Mindfulness has never been easier, Zinnia Journal is a great way to track your behavior, change bad habits and recognize the good ones. The app offers a fast, fun, and creative way to document the things that matter most to you."

Features Include:

- * The creativity of journaling combined with the convenience and features of a digital device
- * Multiple drawing tools
- * Supports Apple Pencil, a user's finger, and third-party stylus input
- * Dozens of professionally designed templates to save you time, with more being added every month
- * Import images, Assembly artwork, Procreate graphics, colored Pigment pages, and more
- * Share via Facebook, Instagram, email, messaging, and other social networks
- * Print journal entries using AirPrint
- * Free, with optional in-app subscription

Zinnia Journal includes dozens of hand-made, ready-to-use page templates, as well as themed art bundles. The apps built-in drawing tools make use of the brush technology from Pixite's popular coloring app, Pigment. As a user creates a page, it becomes the ultimate personal expression of their life experiences.

Drawing tools include:

- * Marker
- * Pencil
- * Technical pen
- * Highlighter
- * Brush pen
- * Paint pen
- * Airbrush
- * Watercolor

No matter if a user accesses one of the many templates available in the app, or if they start their pages from scratch, each Zinnia Journal page brings order to the user's day-to-day experiences, in their own personal style. The look and feel of each page can be customized, making the process a rewarding one.

"There is increasing evidence to support the idea that journaling has a positive impact on both mental and physical well-being. By journaling routinely you may discover reduced stress and a greater sense of self," continues Eugene. "Discover what makes you feel happy and confident, or solve problems more effectively, through the magic of journaling. And if you're feeling social, Zinnia makes it easy to share completed spreads with friends, family, and fans by email, messaging, Facebook, Instagram and other social networks."

Zinnia Journal is the creative way to document the things that matter most to iPad users. Users can keep their diary, create a collage, schedule time for self-care, and easily record their meaningful day-to-day interactions. Zinnia Journal offers creative journaling with a punch.
