

Scorpion Research releases Scorpion BarCode 3.20 for macOS

Published on 12/08/20

Scorpion Research today announces Scorpion BarCode 3.20, an update to its popular barcode creation software for Apple macOS. Scorpion BarCode helps with easy creation and printing of all major barcode symbologies in EPS, PDF, PNG, or TIFF file formats. Easily integrate Barcodes into popular database, spreadsheet and word processor applications. A command line version is also provided to build powerful scripted solutions. Designed for macOS 11 Big Sur but works with OS X 10.9 or later.

Chislehurst Kent, United Kingdom - Scorpion Research today announced the release of version 3.20 of Scorpion BarCode, its popular BarCode creation software for Apple macOS computers. By entering the text of a Barcode, the software produces the graphic equivalent using one of the above selected symbologies. Use it to:

- * Create editable vector PDF or EPS documents
- * Create bitmap PNG or TIFF documents with transparency
- * Paste into another application simply via the Clipboard
- * Print camera ready artwork automatically
- * Convert text in other applications into Barcode graphics using AppleScript

Sample AppleScripts are available to enable you to automate your BarCode creation workflow including integrating Barcodes into popular database, spreadsheet and word processor software.

A command line version is also available, enabling powerful custom scripting solutions beyond AppleScript or Automator. Integrate into solutions directly using Unix technologies such as shell scripts or via web CGI scripts.

The Scorpion BarCode software embraces the latest Apple technology to simplify the user experience. The entire User Guide is built into the onscreen help and separately viewable.

New in Scorpion BarCode 3.20:

- * Optimised for macOS 11 Big Sur
- * Universal Binary for Apple Silicon or Intel processors
