FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Milano, Italy - September 28, 2007 - Tension Software is proud to announce Invoices 2.0, an update to their simple to use invoicing application for Mac OSX. Invoices uses the last Apple Cocoa technology, Core Data based on a SQL native OS X engine and Universal Binary technology to have full speed on both PPC Mac and Intel Mac.

After the initial setup, with just few clicks the user can create customized invoices with company logo, company data, customer data, services and goods with all calculations performed.

Invoices can be created and edited easily. Customers, goods/services description and notes can be inserted using autofill functions to avoid repetitive tasks. Labels and tax setting can be customized to adapt the software to the users country or state.

Main Features in Version 2.0:

- * Paid/UnPaid checkmark in invoices table
- * Subtotal hide if no tax in settings
- * Optional number and date format as in system preferences
- * Optional date format YYMMDD
- * Bug solved in address format
- * Added Duplicate invoice command
- * Bug solved in currency display
- * Notefield with scrollbar
- * Currency in the invoice table
- * Autoupdate check from preferences
- * Other internal bug solved
- * Internal algorithm optimization

System Requirements:

- * Mac OS X 10.4 or later
- * Universal Binary for PowerPC & Intel
- * 2.1 MB Hard Drive space.
