Odessa, Ukraine - CS Odessa today announces the upcoming release of ConceptDraw 7.4, scheduled for release on 16 of October, the new version of CS Odessa's popular vector drawing and diagramming software package will support Apple's newest 10.5 Leopard operating system. ConceptDraw 7.4 runs smoothly on Leopard and supports its revolutionary Quick Look technology at the same time adding new Drawing Navigator feature.

ConceptDraw 7.4 is fully tested to run on Leopard and supports Leopard's new Quick Look powerful technology introduced that provides users a way to preview content of files without opening them. ConceptDraw 7.4 implements Quick Look by allowing users to preview ConceptDraw documents and find chart and diagram content on one's computer.

Sergey Savenko, Product Manager of ConceptDraw 7 notes, "At CS Odessa we are excited with the innovations the upcoming release of Leopard introduces to the Macintosh. As a developer of applications for the Mac we are keenly focused on supporting the new user features introduced by Apple in each subsequent release of their OS, and we want our customers to benefit fully when they are using the latest technology from Apple and CS Odessa."

Drawing Navigator added in ConceptDraw 7.4 makes navigation on a large diagram quick and handy for users. Simple click on a space between rulers bring up a panel with document thumbnail and small frame used to quickly scroll document to desired position when moved.

ConceptDraw 7 is a professional business graphics software package that makes the preparation of professional business graphics easy for individuals regardless of their drawing skill level and supports latest versions of both Mac OS X and Windows operational systems. ConceptDraw 7 gives users the ability to create sophisticated and professional looking organization charts, flowcharts and compelling business graphics as well as the ability to construct network and database diagrams.

ConceptDraw 7.4 Professional is available for $299 USD. Version 7.4 will be available as no charge update for registered users of ConceptDraw 7.0 and later. Owners earlier versions can upgrade for only $149 USD.
