

U.F.O. Sightings App for iPhone is Out of This World

Published on 12/10/09

Deep Powder Software today released U.F.O. Sightings 1.1 for iPhone and iPod Touch users who love to read all the details of alien visitation. Interest in alien sightings and spacecrafts is almost as old as time itself. There are millions of people worldwide who actively seek information and offer first hand accounts of what they believe to be, valid U.F.O. sightings. The thousands of accounts offer enough details to keep readers happy for a long time.

Waretown, NJ - Announcing that Deep Powder Software, the developers of U.F.O. Sightings, has released their 1.1 version for fans of alien reports. The developer has included thousands of detailed accounts guaranteed to satisfy even die hard U.F.O. chasers.

Interest in alien sightings and spacecrafts is almost as old as time itself. There are millions of people worldwide who actively seek information and offer first hand accounts of what they believe to be, valid U.F.O. sightings. Deep Powder Software's app offers an easy and convenient way to access thousands of unidentified flying object reports through a user's iPhone or iPod Touch device.

Although the U.F.O. Sightings information is from eye witnesses, readers themselves need to determine if the accounts are true or just convincing hoaxes. Included details are valuable not only for the merely curious but also for those who like to do their own investigations or theorize, as report sources are supplied.

The 1.1 version offers new splash screens and backgrounds, as well as versatile search features to the already user-friendly interface.
