GimmeSomeTune 4.0 comes with many improvements: last.fm support, Remote Control support, Cover fetching in high res from the iTMS, two new sources for lyrics fetching, Leopard compatibility and much more. GimmeSomeTune is highly customizable. Nearly every aspect of it can be changed and adjusted to the user's personal needs.

Eternal Storms Software announces GimmeSomeTune 4.0, their free, lyrics and cover artwork companion to iTunes. GimmeSomeTune is an iTunes companion with a large user base. Its core features are fetching cover artwork and lyrics for the currently playing song in iTunes, a info-window that shows info on the song, a lyrics window, hotkeys to control iTunes from any application, last.fm support and Remote Control support.

GimmeSomeTune is highly customizable. Nearly every aspect of it can be changed and adjusted to the user's personal needs. It is Freeware, but donations are greatly appreciated and used for further development of the application. GimmeSomeTune requires Mac OS X 10.4 "Tiger", an older version for Mac OS X 10.3.9 is still available on the website.
