

Tropical Software Releases TopXNotes 1.5

Published on 01/12/10

Tropical Software today announces TopXNotes 1.5, an update to its award-winning personal note manager for Macintosh. Version 1.5 has a completely modernized User Interface including a new, customizable toolbar, rewritten NoteOrganizer, two finger scrolling, new icons, and several more cosmetic improvements. TopXNotes allows people to create, collect, store, and retrieve all the bits and pieces of information they find themselves inundated with on a daily basis.

Gainesville, FL - Tropical Software today announces the immediate release of TopXNotes 1.5, the latest update to its award-winning personal note manager for Macintosh. Version 1.5 includes an all new, taller and customizable toolbar that makes TopXNotes even easier to use by putting the most frequently used tools at the user's fingertips.

TopXNotes version 1.5 includes many other changes, including a completely rewritten NoteOrganizer with a new striped background that makes it easier to focus on and select individual notes from the list. Note icons have also been redesigned, and the company has added support for two-finger scrolling.

TopXNotes is the premiere personal information manager for Macintosh computers. Macworld magazines 4 out of 5 stars is just one of the many positive reviews it has received. It is a Mac-only product that allows you to also sync your notes with any Classic iPod. The company reports iPhone and iPod Touch support is coming soon.

Pricing and Availability:

TopXNotes 1.5 is available for $39.95 (USD) from the Tropical Software web site and many finer Macintosh resellers. Existing users can upgrade to version 1.5 for only $14.95 from the company's web site. Anyone who purchased a version prior to 1.5 within the past 60 days is entitled to receive a free upgrade to 1.5 as long as they can provide a proof of purchase.
